Californian Promises Every Bit of Loyalty

Nomination by Acclamation

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren of California today accepted the Republican vice-presidential nomination before cheering delegates of the national convention.

He came to the convention hall after being nominated by acclamation to run with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York on the GOP presidential ticket.

Warren got the nod from Dewey after a GOP "brains board" canvassed the whole field of possibilities.

Warren and the governor's three daughters, Virginia, 19; Dorothy, 17, and Nina, 14, accompanied him to the platform.

The smiling family group posed for five minutes for photographers. Mrs. Warren wore a blue suit and a wide-brimmed white hat.

Chairman Joseph Martin introduced Warren who, he said, will be vice-president after next November.

Draws Laugh

Warren took the speaker's stand and drew a laugh at the outset by saying:

"For the first time in my life I know what it feels like to get hit by a street car.

"Yesterday, I received something of a jolt. I had no idea I am sure that there was any such shock awaiting me as today. And before you change your mind I want to say—I accept.

"Now the reason that I am so quick to say that is that I have not yet recovered my breath, much less my thoughts.

"If I let it go any longer, I'm afraid I'll forget to say even that.

"I am more grateful to you than you know for the great honor that you have given me.

"And then I pledge to you that if the people place their confidence in us, as I believe they will, that during the next four years I will give every bit of loyalty in my makeup."

"I want to say to you, my Republican friends, that I will spend this summer and this fall in making a great crusade for the upholding of Republican principles.

"I pledge you that I will give

'Foothill Village' Development Ok'd

Action opening Harold K. Hemingway's "Foothill Village" tract on Foothill boulevard for business development was taken last night by the city planning commission in approving a plot map for the subdivision.

The commission recommended to city council that the plot be approved, after turning down Mr. Hemingway's request that a drug store be licensed to sell packaged liquors.

Commission action in this respect is not necessarily final, member Henry Busch explained. Four of nine commission members were absent from last night's meeting.

Sheep Moved

In a statement to this newspaper today, Mr. Hemingway said that the Karakul sheep display, formerly at the "village" site, has been moved to a recently-purchased tract on the north side of Foothill opposite the entrance to Upland Memorial park.

This tract, he said, will be the site of the new fur salon he intends building, as well as headquarters for the Karakul farm enterprises.

To date, the drug store is the only commercial enterprise announced for the "village". Mr. Hemingway said others would be made public later.

Reservation

Conditions under which the subdivision plat map was approved included a reservation in the deed giving free access over and across the south 20 feet of the lot.

A proposed subdivision of 18 acres, including 82 lots, at the northwest corner of Euclid avenue and Seventh street was submitted to planners by Phillip White.

Tentative approval was given, contingent that all streets are approved, that sidewalks are placed on the north side of Seventh street and that all alleys be dedicated.

A second and much smaller subdivision was submitted by Ray Brian. This would provide for division of a lot in three building sites at the northwest corner of Ninth street and Benson avenue. It was oked.

Survey Maps

A record of survey of two lots for Joseph W. Morgensen was approved. The location is the corner of Arrow highway and Benson avenue.

After discussion, the commission voted to renew, for three months only, the gift shop license of Mrs. Gale Roberson. Mrs. Roberson operates Gayle's gift shop at 273 North Euclid avenue.

Arrangements for the 1948 Junior Rose Bowl game was completed yesterday at a meeting of the Pasadena junior chamber of commerce Junior Rose Bowl executive committee, attended by Leo Wadsworth, Chaffey college director, in his capacity as secretary of the board of management.

The gathering was at the Green hotel, Pasadena. After full discussion with JCC officials, the board of management acted on the following:

(1) Adopted the budget for the 1948 Junior Rose Bowl game which had been worked out in eight previous budget meetings of the executive committee.

(2) Announced admission prices

Accost Woman With Knife

Two men of Mexican descent attempted to force an Ontario woman into their car last night by threatening her with a knife, Ontario police said today.

Ruby Brady, 115 West D street, said that two men accosted her at about 11 p.m. last night when she was on her way to work at the Orange Products plant.

Parking their old, black sedan near the intersection of Park street and Euclid avenue, they jumped out brandishing a knife. She broke loose from them and ran to the house of Rev. William A. Hulet, 506 South Euclid avenue, who made the report to the police. No trace of them had been found as yet.

REPUBLICANS OFFER DEWEY, WARREN FOR HIGHEST OFFICES IN LAND

The nomination by acclamation of California's Governor Earl Warren for the post of vice-president, today completed the 1948 presidential slate of the Republican party. Gov. Warren will join New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey in the fight to unseat the Democratic party and to return the GOP to the White House for the first time in 16 years. In his acceptance speech this morning, Gov. Warren pledged a fighting campaign.

Operators Sign Coal Contract

WASHINGTON AP — John L. Lewis and most of the soft coal operators today signed a new coal contract providing a $1-a-day wage increase and twice as much money for the miners' welfare-pension fund.

An official of the steel industry-owned coal mines had announced earlier he would not sign the agreement.

A joint announcement by Lewis and the operators who signed said the new contract—except for the increased wages and pension fund—kept "all other terms and conditions of the previous wage agreement."

This includes an outright continuation of a union shop provision, despite a Taft-Hartley Labor act ban against the union shop unless it is authorized by the national labor relations board.

This union shop clause caused Harry M. Moses to balk at signing for the steel industry owned "captive" coal mines.

The new contract is effective July 1 and will replace one expiring June 30.

DEWEY WANTS WARREN TO BE ACTIVE

PHILADELPHIA AP — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said today he hopes Gov. Earl Warren can take a "large part" in the "tremendous job" of reorganizing the federal government.

The GOP presidential candidate told that to a news conference only a few hours after Warren was nominated as his running mate.

"I should most earnestly hope it will be possible and feasible to take advantage of Governor Warren's great talents in reorganizing the government and bringing order out of chaos," Dewey said.

The New Yorker said he thinks it might be possible for Warren to take a great deal of time away from the Vice-President's duties as presiding officer of the Senate to share in this work.

Order Guard To Cease Recruiting

WASHINGTON AP—Army Secretary Royall telegraphed all state adjutants general today to stop recruiting national guardsmen immediately.

He told them congressional leaders will not favor extra appropriations to pay more guardsmen than the regular budget provides.

The budget for the next fiscal year provides for a total National guard strength of 341,000. The rush of enlistments by men who otherwise would be eligible for the draft is believed to have pushed the strength near to 375,000. Under provisions of the draft act, men who were not in the guard last midnight are subject to draft.

President Truman signalled the start of the nation's second peacetime draft when he signed the two-year selective service bill into law yesterday.

Earlier he okayed a $10,000,000,000-plus fund to build up the army, navy and air force to a strength of 2,000,000 men.

The first result of Mr. Truman's signature on the draft bill was to shut off the flood of enlistments in the national guard and other reserve units.

The draft bill provided that men 19 through 25 who were signed up in those organizations before the measure became law would not be inducted into the regular forces.

EARL WARREN

Californians Surprised, Delighted at Selection

by the Associated Press

Californians, who have heard Earl Warren say "No" so often to the question of his ambition for the vice-presidency, were astonished today when their governor accepted.

But their feeling, generally, was almost as happily unanimous as was his nomination in Philadelphia today.

Lieutenant Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who would succeed Warren as California's governor if the Republicans win in November, declared today "the action of the Republican convention . . . is a recognition of the great importance of the West in American affairs.

"We are delighted with the nominees chosen and of course we will support them with the greatest energy and enthusiasm."

The state constitution provides for the lieutenant governor's automatic succession in event the Governor's chair becomes vacant. Warren's term expires in January, 1951.

Knight, 51, has been an attorney and judge in California for many years. He and Warren were elected in the same year.

Paul C. Smith, editor and general manager of the San Francisco Chronicle, commented that Warren's nomination as Dewey's running mate "is of historic significance."

"It is," Smith added, "the coup de grace to reactionary isolation."

Feldmans Buy Campus Grill

Harry Feldman and his son, Harry Feldman, Jr., are today in active charge of "The Campus" cafe and confectionery on Foothill boulevard, a short distance east of Second avenue. They recently purchased the business from Mr. and Mrs. William R. Libolt and John R. Libolt.

Theh two men are experienced cafe operators although this is their first business ownership since before the war. During the war Mr. Feldman, Sr., served as production superintendent of the Brewster Aeronautical corporation in the east, 6500 men working under his direction.

The two families recently came to California and selected Upland as their home. They reside at 1294 East Ninth street, Upland.

Fountain service as well as full-course dinners will be featured at the cafe.

Delegates Cheer Lustily For Candidates

Predict Victory In November

By JACK BELL

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, (AP) — The Republicans made it a Thomas E. Dewey-Earl Warren ticket today and closed their convention cheering for a coast-to-coast victory hope in November's presidential elections.

California's Governor Warren got the vice presidential nomination by acclamation once New York's Governor Dewey, unanimously nominated last night for the presidency, pointed him out as the man he wanted.

The gavel ending the 24th national Republican convention banged down at 10:30 a.m. (PDT).

Chairman Joe Martin ended it on the same note hit on Monday when it opened—victory. Just before the session's end, he introduced Warren as the "next Vice-President of the United States".

The cheering delegates left no doubt they believed him — that this is the year the GOP can end 16 years of Democratic rule.

Warren, in an acceptance speech, pledged "every bit of loyalty in my make-up".

No Other

No other than Warren's was presented for the vice-presidency.

Arizona gave notice of nominating Harold E. Stassen, but a few minutes later withdrew it.

Chairman Joseph Martin put Warren's name before the convention and declared him nominated by acclamation.

New York's Dewey, getting his second chance at the presidency, made it an East-West all-governor ticket after an all-night series of conferences.

The word quickly spread to Convention Hall and the delegates didn't take long to whoop through Warren's name.

Leaders of camps of other disappointed presidential hopefuls were quick to line up behind the Dewey-Warren combination.

At 9:30 a.m. (EST), the hour set for this convention to consider nominations for vice-president, there was scarcely a major politician in the hall.

Chairman Joe Martin had not put in an appearance. The GOP bigwigs who sit on the platform were absent.

They were waiting downtown for the word from the New York governor, now quarterbacking the Republican drive to gain full control of the national government.

In Stride

Dewey took his nomination in stride.

After the third unanimous ballot had sealed the issue, he strode into the convention accompanied by his pretty wife.

He struck a peace chord in his 15-minute talk, to be followed sometime later by a formal campaign opening speech.

"As long as the world is half free," he told the vigorously-fanning delegates, "we must peacefully labor to help men everywhere achieve liberty."

He said that only in "a world

RUARK CONCLUDES

GOP Convention Boxoffice Bust - Not Enough Oratory or Sinister Doings

By ROBERT C. RUARK

(Special to The Daily News-Herald)

PHILADELPHIA — I have come down with a hard case of convention feet, which always induces a philosophical turn of mind. And it seems to me that so far this convention is a box office bust, since both the silver-tongued oratory and the sinister doings in the smoke-filled room have been markedly absent.

Ruark

The American presidential convention — and an odd art form, to say the least — has been dedicated to a couple of special techniques for many a year. The first was originated by William Jennings Bryan in 1896. The boy orator of Nebraska, then a fairly obscure congressman with slim hope for the vice presidency, even, tuned up his Warlitzer voice and began to weave a spell.

Bryan made the famous "Cross of Gold" speech, and when he shut off his personal pipe-organ, he was a presidential nominee. Since that time, I doubt if a candidate for sheriff has mounted a rostrum without thinking — nay, hoping, praying—that his avalanche of gilded words would richochet from a secret chord in the audience, which would rise up as one and clamor for Doakes for President.

The feat of spontaneous endorsement induced by oratory has not been duplicated since '96, but the boys always try.

Senator Bricker, a big, frosty-headed, handsome man, was obviously making the play in his speech at the hall last night, but it sagged as most of them sag, because of acoustics, radio, television, and lack of the kind of pipes to enthrall a man and strike him breathless.

The good, meaty, orotund speech is a stranger to the mechanics of modern public address, and the gymnastics of a fine, corny arm-waver are wasted on a crowd which is busy ogling the visiting Hollywoodians, the freaks, the cafe-society celebrities which infect a presidential convention.

The meticulously organized demonstrations for the various candidates, where the delegates mill around, wobbling their signs, whistling, stomping, and performing a crazy conga to

LOVELY NANCY LEE WEDS REDONDO MAN IN GARDEN SETTING SATURDAY EVENING

Miss Nancy Eunice Lee, daughter of Mrs. T. Melvin Lee, 917 North Palm avenue, who became the bride of Eustace Alexander French, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. French, 1817 Huntington Lane, Redondo Beach, on Saturday, June 19, at 7 p. m., was married in a garden ceremony at her home.

One hundred relatives and friends witnessed the double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Charles L. Knight, minister of the Oneonta Congregational church of South Pasadena. A large bouquet of white gladioli, set off by potted palms and banked red roses, formed an outdoor altar. Borders of Shasta daisies, marguerites, and white gladioli could be seen in the garden.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Lee T. Bashore, Jr., wore a frock fashioned of white frosted seersucker organdy which she wore over white satin. At the neckline of the bodice was an insert of mousseline de soie, while the short puffed sleeves were set off by lony daytime gloves of organdy. Her skirt featured a hoop skirt and a slight train. A finger-tip length veil, in a semi-halo effect, was ornamented by clusters of orangle blossoms at either side. Esther Reid daisies, carnations, centered with bouvardia, comprised her bouquet.

Miss Lorraine Tripp, San Jacinto, accompanied by Mrs. Duncan Engle, sang Grieg's "I Love Thee". Curtis L. Williams of Pasadena, an uncle of the bride, played a cello solo, Gounod's "Ave Maria".

Frosted organdy formals of pastel shades in colonial design, featuring bustles caught up with a bow with short feather duster ruffles of eyelet embroidery at the hem, adorned the bridesmaids, who were Miss Marilyn E. Lee, sister of the bride, who wore blue; Mrs. Robert J. Newton, was in yellow, and Miss Celia Wesley, Riverside, was in blue. A bouquet of yellow and white marguerites was carried by each of the women.

Best man was R. E. Bower, Ojai, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, while R. J. Newton, claremont; Ralph C. Williams, Pasadena; Robert O'Brien, Bellflower, served as ushers.

Mrs. Lee greeted the guests at the reception in a pink crepe suit with navy accessories, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. French, chose a blue sheer frock. White gladioli corsages were worn by the two mothers.

Mrs. William Paulin, Upland, sister of the bride; Mrs. R. E. Bower, Ojai, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Ralph Williams, Pasadena; Mrs. Robert Walker, Ontario, assisted with the serving, which took place on a table employing appointments of green and white. Miss Barbara Palmer, Upland, circulated the guest book.

The new Mrs. French chose a rose suit with dark grey accessories and a white orchid for their wedding trip. Following their two-week stay at mountain resorts and points in the Southwest, they will be at home at 1824 Huntington Lane, Redondo Beach.

The bride, a graduate of Chaffey high school, received her diploma from Pomona college this year, where she was a magna cum laude student. Although she majored in art, she took an active interest in music and served on the advisory council of the Women's Glee club during the past year.

The bridegroom was graduated from Chaffey high school with the class of '42, and following four years of service with the Army Air Force, he studied aeronautical engineering at Northrop Aeronautical institutte, Inglewood. He is now affiliated with North American Aviation, Inc., in the engineering department.

"CHRISTIAN SCIENCE" CHOSEN FOR SUNDAY MORNING SERMON

"Christian Science" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston. The Golden Text, chosen from Isaiah, reads, "O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord."

In Matthew's Gospel it is related that "Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom. . . . and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. . . . Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Some individuals assimilate truth more readily than others, but any student, who adheres to the divine rules of Christian Science and imbibes the spirit of Christ, can demonstrate Christian Science, cast out error, heal the sick, and add continually to his store of spiritual understanding, potency, enlightenment, and success."

United German State Asked By Russians

WARSAW (AP) — Russia and seven European satellites urged today that a "provisional democratic, peace-loving all-German government" be set up.

They did so in a communique by their foreign ministers, who ended a two-day conference at midnight at Wilanow palace, eight miles east of here.

(The communique as broadcast by the Moscow radio and distributed in London by the Soviet news agency Tass, said an all-German government should be created by Big Four agreement.

(Max Reimann, chairman of the communist party of the United States, British and French zones of Germany, told a Frankfurt political meeting yesterday, west-German communists "will be glad to participate" in any all-German government set up in the Soviet zone.

(The Russians, who regard Berlin as part of their occupation zone, are exerting strong economic pressure to eject the three western allies from that jointly-occupied city).

The foreign ministers, including V. M. Molotov of Russia, said the government in Germany should be made up of representatives of democratic parties and organizations and should guarantee against any more German aggression.

The army stated that each next of kin would be notified in advance of the arrival of the vessel, and again after arrival of the remains at the regional distribution centers of the American Graves Registration service.

WARREN LIKES HIS SLEEP

SACRAMENTO AP — Earl Warren is tireless when he's on the go—but evidently he takes well to sleep when he's home.

The receptionist in the Governor's outer office smiled broadly today when she learned the Dewey forces had gotten her boss out of bed last night to talk politics.

Said Mrs. Madeleine Doty, knowingly:

'We can't ever do that when he's here!"

Tells of Life In India

In every phase of life India has rapidly advanced and the improvement will gain momentum in the years just ahead, Lloyd Lorbeer, returned missionary, declared in an interesting and informative address at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Upland Woman's club house at noon yesterday.

Able leadership is in the new state of India and one of the emphasis is on education, he said, adding that only 15 per cent of the Indians are literate. Girls and women are gaining in status and the long-established caste system is scheduled for the discard, related the fluent speaker. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Everett Henry and he and his wife are residing in Claremont prior to returning to India.

Mr. Lorbeer is a teacher and a preacher and based on his close acquaintance with the natives he expressed optimism over the early emerging of India as a power in the far east.

Ernest H. Gibson served as program chairman, and Ralph Scott, vice-president, presided in the absence of President Howard Paulin.

Amos R. Colborn, a new Lion, gave a review of his life, a custom for all new members. Glenn M. Atwood told briefly of the Lions district convention. Francis Wilson, captain of the up-and-coming Lions baseball team, reported on recent activities. Guests included Walter Schroeder and Nelson Campbell of the Ontario club.

Fined on Drunk Driving Charge

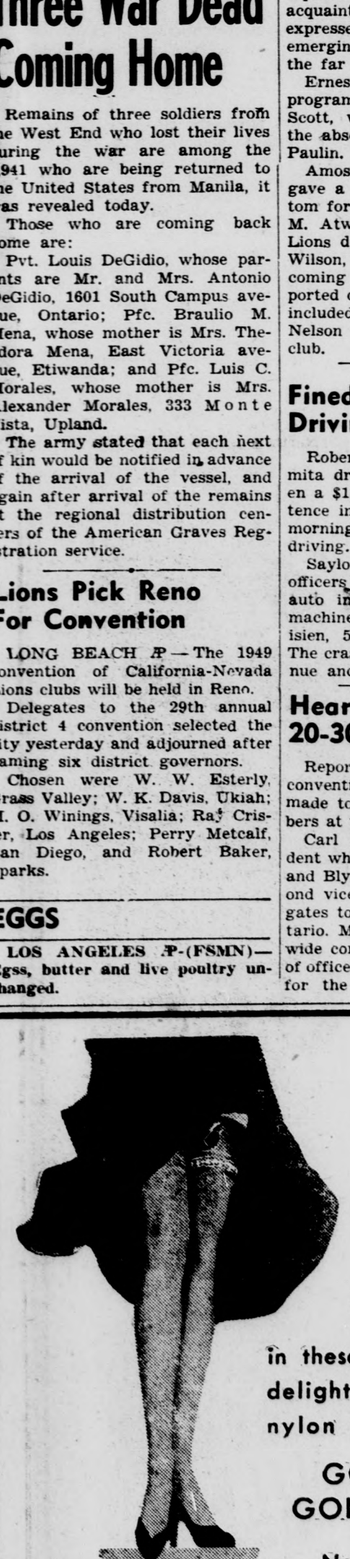

Robert Saylors, 20, 282 Lomita drive, Alta Loma, was given a $150 fine or 75-day jail sentence in Upland police court this morning on charges of drunken driving.

Saylors was arrested by local officers after he allegedly ran his auto into the door of a parked machine driven by Arthur E. Parisien, 548 East Seventh street. The crash occurred at Second avenue and D street, here.

Hear Reports On 20-30 Convention

Reports on the recent district convention in Long Beach were made to Ontario 20-30 club members at their meeting last night.

Carl Rausin ,new 20-30 president who will be installed July 10, and Blythe Rosenberger, new second vice-president, were the delegates to the convention from Ontario. Main business of the statewide conclave was the nomination of officers and the making of plans for the convention at Catalina

20-30 Installs New Officers

New officers, headed by Dick Crampton as president, were installed last night by the Upland 20-30 club in a dinner meeting at Lucy and John's restaurant.

Hubert Weldon, Ontario, subdistrict governor of 20-30, acted as installing officer at the ladies night ceremony. Retiring President Harold Keller presented Mr. Crampton with a new gavel. In return, Mr. Crampton presented Mr. Keller with his past president's ring.

Other officers installed at the meeting were Dick Pehl, first vice-president; Wayne Walton, second vice-president; Ralph Childers, secretary, and Ernest Van Alstine, treasurer.

New members of the board of directors are Ellsworth P. Mitchell, Harold Hayes and Bill Schmidt.

The first club meeting with Mr. Crampton presiding will be held next Thursday.

Seduction Case Is Dismissed

On motion of the district attorney's office, seduction charges against Fred H. Matteson, 50, Riverside, were dismissed in Judge Fred H. Jacobs justice court here yesterday.

Matteson was arraigned on that charge June 4 after his arrest by Upland police. A local widow was complainant in the action.

Basis for the dismissal was a ruling of the state supreme court that sections of the criminal code under which Matteson was charged are applicable only in the case of women who have never been married.

A lurid account of the activities of Matteson was given by police at the time of his arrest.

He is said to have represented himself to the local woman as a prominent baseball figure, and scout for the Philadelphia Athletics team.

His disappearance, shortly before the date set for their wedding, led the disclosure of his true identity as a Riverside citrus grower and married man.

The custom of embalming had its origin in ancient Egypt.

Republicans Break 90-Year-Old Tradition in Nominating Dewey

Breaking a 90-year tradition, the Republicans last night, in a sudden burst of unity, placed their presidential hopes for the second time in the hands of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. From all reports, it was Sen. Robert A. Taft who started the unanimous swing for Dewey after the adjournment of the afternoon session.

According to James Marlow of the Associated Press, Sen. Taft told the other leading candidates, "There's no chance of anybody but Dewey winning now. I'm withdrawing and asking the Ohio delegation, which has been backing me, to throw its votes to Dewey."

So, what had been apparent to most impartial observers from the start became obvious to the man who for years has sought the presidency of the United States. There was little question after the second ballot yesterday that Dewey was the overwhelming favorite of the Republican delegates. Conceivably, Mr. Dewey could have been nominated that afternoon if the adjournment had not been called.

The fact that Mr. Dewey, in spite of active opposition from such Republican big-wigs as Gov. Duff of Pennsylvania and Col. Robert McCormick of Illinois, could sweep the convention as he did and break a long-time tradition as well is a great tribute to him personally. True, he had the able assistance of three expert political manipulators in Herbert Brownell, Jr., J. Russel Sprauge and Edwin Jaeckle. But the fact remains that in the eyes of the Republican delegates, Gov. Dewey seemed to be the best candidate. We have no way of knowing, of course, whether the rank and file of Republicans would have made the same choice but since it is by national convention that we select our candidate we must abide by their selection.

There is little doubt that Mr. Dewey will be an effective campaigner and that come November he will be elected the next president of the United States. Running against Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1944 in the midst of the war, Mr. Dewey polled over 20,000,000 votes, only 3,000,000 less than the late president. When you consider that Mr. Roosevelt was virtually unbeatable and the war was on, Mr. Dewey's vote-getting power was amazing.

This time against Harry Truman, the likely choice for the Democrats, the young New York governor should find the going considerably easier. Not only because of the reaction which has set in against the President but also because Mr. Truman can not hope to compete with the vigor and efficiency of the Dewey campaign.

The Republicans had a difficult choice in selecting their standard bearer for 1948. Only a few times in history have there been men of the caliber of Harold E. Stassen, Gov. Earl Warren, Sen. Robert Taft, Sen. Arthur Vandenberg and Mr. Dewey available for the presidency all at one time. But only one could be nominated and that proved to be Mr. Dewey.

There is little doubt that Mr. Dewey will become one of the most efficient presidents in our history. He has already demonstrated his outstanding administrative ability in New York, where he inherited debts, confusion and bureaucracy. In a very short time, Gov. Dewey "cleaned house" and today New York not only has a surplus but also has on its public payroll approximately half of the employes it had under Mr. Dewey's two predecessors.

The government in Washington has needed a man of Mr. Dewey's caliber for quite some time. He is young, virile and able. Efficiency has always been the keynote of his life and that should prove to be quite a refreshing change from what we've had in our national government the last 10 or 12 years.

What a Difference One Penny Makes

One penny isn't much, any more.

The California Taxpayers association limits that statement with this clause, "except to taxpayers."

"The cents people add to the price of their purchase at retail this year will mount up to $275,000,000 for the treasury of the state of California," continues the association in a discussion of taxes in its "Tax Diget."

"A single cent of property tax rate, levied against the $11 billion assessed valuation of taxable property in California for 1947-48 meant a tax levy of something like $1,100,000.

"Taxpayers ought to be talking good economical government all the year 'round. And they should be especially active at local budget time.

DOROTHY THOMPSON — Self Interest and Good Will Vie at GOP Convention

It is hard to write from the Republican convention before the balloting has begun and in the knowledge that by the time this appears a candidate may have been nominated. Yet I have learned something here about the dilemma, I suppose, of democracy; the perpetual struggle between those who think in terms of self-interest and the men of good will.

I have been more interested in the kind and quality of the people who support this candidate or that than in the candidates themselves, for there are no dark horses among the candidates. They seem known quantities. It is the types of people who support them who are not known quantities—or qualities.

Not the speeches, either, or the platform are of great interest. Conventions seldom really air issues. It seems to me that I have heard all the speeches before—at the last Republican convention and the one before that. And we are all assuming that this is a Republican year. As for the platform, there is no record that administrations stand on what they run on. Governments respond to events, not to statements carpentered at conventions.

But there is a climate that is hopeful or discouraging, and that is why one who seeks to sense the times goes to conventions. There is, for instance, the climate of patriotism, of seriousness and sincerity, of caring for the country, of wanting a good man for president, because if there is not things may go very wrong; or there is not such a climate, and this varies among the followers of candidates.

Four years ago I was impressed by Mr. Stassen's followers and have been again. There are many young people among them, of the kind one loves; college grads, but mostly from middle-western state universities; the sort of youth that most hates war but volunteers first if necessary. They believe in their candidate. You see, they would rather lose with him than win with anyone else. And among the older people in the Stassen delegation all the faces look as American as the ones you see at Grange meetings and church suppers. They look like neighbors, and it is absolutely apparent that they are not in the Stassen movement for themselves, but for America.

The Taft people, too, believe in their candidate. They believe in his intelligence, industry, and integrity; and they are certain he means well by the United States and never would let it down or make it the prey of organized predatory interests.

But there are other types here. They seem better organized, more certain of the outcome, slicker, shrewder, and one sees predatory faces among them, and smug faces, and cynical faces. And, as I write, I am afraid they are walking off with this convention. The others seem unable to get together. They are scattered. They divide on principles; but these know what they want, for they want it for themselves.

When this convention assembled it was exceptionally open and every candidate seemed to have a fair chance. But on Tuesday the blitz began in earnest, culminating when Governor Duff called six members of the Pennsylvania delegation together to see whether they could not unite it behind a compromise—neither Dewey nor Vandenberg. Possibly Warren or Taft. Then Senator Grundy and M. Owlett, past and present heads of the Pennsylvania manufacturer's association, and the epitomes of self-interested reaction, said in effect it would be Dewey or nobody for them. Governor Duff is no radical. But he is a patriot. Suddenly, however, the predatory note was too blatant.

Something has been steam-rollering Dewey and may have gotten him nominated before this column appears. But it is not the best in this convention, and everybody knows it. It gives one the feeling that it is not candidates who are taking a beating. It's those people with the candid eyes and honest, serious faces, who want the best for America and for the world in general, and nothing at all for themselves.

I find I would mind very much should they not win; but those others, who know exactly what they are after for themselves and seem to have that infallible sense of who would best serve their interests, should win.

All In A Lifetime — Recollections

JAMES MARLOW — Dewey Won Nomination With Help of Political Pros

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Thomas E. Dewey won the Republican presidential nomination with the big help of three political pros.

Those three men were his political braintrust: Herbert Brownell, Jr., 44; J. Russel Sprauge, 61; and Edwin Jaeckle, 53.

All three are New York lawyers. They ran his campaign for the presidential nomination in 1940, when he just missed it; again in 1944, when he got it; and now, when he got it again.

Against their kind of carefully worked out campaign, the chances of some of the other candidates must seem like the chances of amateurs.

For instance, Governor Earl Warren of California wanted the nomination and the 53 delegates from his state voted for him solidly. But few others did.

The Dewey forces had 25 rooms on an upper floor in the Bellevue-Stratford hotel and they rented the huge main ballroom on the first floor.

Delegates, convention visitors and Philadelphians who wanted a look-see at politics could wander into the ballroom and drink soft drinks.

But the real work of the Dewey campaign was done in those rooms upstairs — the real Dewey headquarters — and among the 1,094 delegates to the convention.

Squads of Dewey people were assigned to each of the 48 state delegations. They were able to report at any time on how each delegate in each delegation would vote.

Their job was to try to win for Dewey as many of those delegates as they could.

If you had been in the convention hall yesterday and last night you would have understood how cool political pros like Dewey's men can be.

To win, Dewey needed 548 of the 1,094 delegate votes. On the first ballot he got 434. On the second he got 515, which left him needing 33 to win. Then the convention recessed.

Pretty soon the delegates, looking for a sandwich and a cool drink, heard this rumor:

Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota and Warren were using the recess to have a conference to decide what they'd do about the third ballot.

All three rivals of Dewey had been trailing badly.

But what nobody knew was that Ohio's Senator Taft, Dewey's closest rival on the first two ballots, had called those three in conference and said something like this:

"There's no chance of anybody but Dewey winning now. I'm withdrawing and asking the Ohio delegation, which has been backing me, to throw its votes to Dewey."

When the delegates reassembled, Brownell, Sprague and Jaeckle suddenly appeared on the speaker's platform for the first time and sat down with extremely pleased looks on their faces.

Almost immediately Ohio's other senator, Bricker, a friend of Taft, told the delegates that Ohio, upon Senator Taft's request, was throwing its support to Dewey.

That broke up the show. The other candidates then released all the other delegations from any promises to vote for them. And on the third ballot Dewey got the votes of all 1,094 delegates.

Brownell looked at Jaeckel when Bricker finished talking and sighed: "This is the first time I've been able to relax in long time."

Violation of Truce Charged

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — A United Nations spokesman said today the Egyptians had fired upon a clearly-marked white U. N. truce plane piloted by an American.

The spokesman said also that the Egyptians had refused to permit a U. N. approved Jewish supply convoy to pass to settlements in the Negeb, and both incidents were regarded by the U. N. commission here as violations of the truce.

The case was not regarded, however, as invalidating the general cease fire which has held generally for two of its four weeks.

Col. Count Thord Bonde, head of the truce mission, has informed Cairo of the violations, the spokesman added.

Longshoremen Back To Work

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—C.I.O. longshoremen headed back for their dock jobs today after hearing union leader Harry Bridges tell them "we're going to strike as soon as we can".

Waterfront operations had virtually halted this morning while the workers met in mass meeting to discuss the threatened national maritime strike.

At the meeting they voted to obey a federal court order issued here yesterday. It forbids a waterfront strike for another ten days. And Judge George B. Harris is still considering the 80-day non-strike injunction asked by the government.

Bridges told the men there should be no walkout between now and July 4, when the latest court order ends.

Impurities in pig iron, such as carbon phosphorus, silicon, manganese and sulphur, must be removed to obtain steel.

Pirates Triumph By 3-2 Count In Tense Struggle

Knocked off their undefeated perch in the Upland City league, the Cycle and Sport nine were shoved down into third place last night after being upset by the Pirates 3-2 in an extra-inning battle at Memorial park.

Paul Ynostroza, Pirate manager, batted for Lopez in the eighth and ended the game with a texas leaguer into left field, scoring center-fielder Riviera.

Tut Miller, who came all the way down from Silver Lake for this game, made the trip in vain as his teammates gave him poor support. Miller gave up only four hits, the same as Pirate's pitcher Anguiano, but two costly Police errors in the seventh allowed the tying run to score.

Dukes tightened their grip on fourth place by downing the Cucamonga Nine Aces 5-1 in the opener. The winners picked up nine hits from Pitcher Lees while Clyde Francisco handcuffed the Cucas with two bingles.

After picking up one score in the third inning, Dukes clinched the battle when Humphrey connected for a two-run homer in the fifth.

Ayersmen Batter Richtar Flingers For 13-4 Victory

For the first time this season, the Upland Van Fleets last night ripped loose on an honest-to-goodness batting tear in a Central league ball game.

The result was a smashing, 13-4 triumph over the Fontana Richtars in a game at the Fontana field.

Oscar Ayers' hands got in their best licks early. They rapped hits to every corner of the lot in the third frame to count nine runs, and to wrap up the ball game. De Bush, Richtar starter, was driven to cover in that frame.

Luther Van Hoy pitched all the way for the Van Fleets, yielding six hits. After the big third inning, he didn't have a thing to worry about.

With the Upland summer recreation program junior softball league scheduled to start Monday, a call was issued today for practice.

All youths under 15 years of age interested in competing in either softball or baseball are asked to get in touch with Recreation Director Lew Fuller or Kenny Smith. Saturday noon will be the deadline for registering.

WEATHERMAN PREDICTS FIGHT WILL GO ON THIS EVENING

NEW YORK (AP)—The weather man predicts the twice postponed heavyweight title fight between Joe Louis and Jersey Joe Walcott will go on tonight.

"There'll be a fight tonight," the U. S. weather forecaster said.

The night will be fair, he said, adding that scattered showers forecast for late afternoon are not expected to continue late enough to force a third postponement.

Louis and Walcott, their nerves strained by two delays, are scheduled to try again in Yankee stadium at 7 p.m., PDT, in their 15-round world championship bout.

Both fighters were in their dressing rooms and thousands of fans were either inside the park or milling at the gates last night when the area was struck by the full force of a thunderstorm — pouring rain, sharp lightning and sound effects.

Some 4,400 paid customers, thoroughly soaked, were inside the stadium. The promoters announced plans for replacing the stubs with new tickets today and for redeeming tickets of those unable to stay over.

The promoters said they expected the gate to be boosted rather than hurt by the interruptions. They reported $850,000 already in the till with receipts certain to go over $900,000.

Fresh business is anticipated from Philadelphia, where the Republican National convention is winding up its work.

Louis appeared glum but he took the postponement philosophically. "I don't think it will bother me any more than it does him," he said.

Pirates Playing

The Ontario Pirates will play two games of baseball at John Galvin park Sunday.

Another fast Los Angeles outfit will be the opponents. This time it's Alloy Dyecrafters.

Manager Kenny Smith announces he'll pitch the seventh-inning opener. Bill Gear, back from an outstanding freshman year at the University of California, has been given the second game nomination.

Seals Only 1 Game Ahead

(By The Associated Press)

San Francisco's season-long Pacific Coast league lead rested shakily today on a one-game margin and a big "if".

The Seals are only a game ahead of both Los Angeles and Oakland and only two games in front of San Diego.

If the Oaks beat the leader again, as they have for three nights running, the teams will be on even terms in games and San Francisco will have only a whisker margin of percentage points.

If Los Angeles also wins, the Angels too will be perched alongside of the Seals in games and about half a whisker ahead of Oakland in points.

Last night, the pride of San Francisco, pitcher Con Dempsey, fell victim to wildness. He walked in a run to tie the game with Oakland at 1-1 in the sixth. Brooks Holder tripled off Dempsey in the seventh to drive in the winning run.

Upland Cubs Get Bye in League

Upland's two entries drew a bye in National Junior baseball league competition tonight while Ontario will go after the Pomona nine in the second game of a double-header at Ontario ball park.

LaVerne meets Claremont in the first encounter at 7 p.m. Since neither team has been defeated, the outcome might decide the pennant winners. The second game starts at 8:45.

BROWNS MAY QUIT ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A veiled threat to move the St. Louis Browns away from St. Louis unless attendance improved failed to start a stampede of fans to the ball park.

A scant 2,288 turned out for last night's game with the Philadelphia Athletics. The four-game series drew fewer than 12,000.

The Browns crowds have averaged about 4,700 this season. Manager Bill DeWitt said an average of 7,500 was needed to break even financially.

Shady Grove Battles Tonight

Alvin Book, Shady Grove's classy pitcher, will attempt to gain the no-hit-no-run game of which he was robbed last Tuesday when his Shady Grove team faces the Fontana Steelers in the first city league contest tonight at Memorial park.

Etiwanda's nightbailers tangle with Marvin Copeland and his Allura Dairy ackers in the 8:45 tiff. Copeland, who pitched softball for the first time in his life only a few weeks ago, is already rated as one of the top hurlers in the city league. He shut out the Fleetmasters Tuesday with only three hits, a mark that only a few veteran moundsmen have made.

Ontario School Car Involved in Crash

Driving an Ontario school district car, Mrs. Marjorie Charlotte Weed, 747 West State street, Ontario, was involved in a collision at Euclid avenue and G street yesterday afternoon.

According to the accident report at the Ontario police station, Andley Vern Filees, 512 West H street, believing that he had enough clearance, turned south on Euclid when Mrs. Weed collided with him. No one was injured.

Orlando Cafe Sold To Calvin Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Williams, who reside at 280 LeGrand avenue, Alta Loma, have purchased the Orlando cafe on Foothill boulevard, Cucamonga. They will operate it under the name of "Cal and Ione's". S. Orlando is the former owner.

The new owners are experienced in cafe business and have a large following of friends.

Three Held for Morals Charge

Sheriff deputies arrested three men last night at the Mexican National camp who were charged with bringing a 14-year-old girl to the camp for immoral purposes. The men are Manuel Martinez, Ruben Esclota, and a 16-year-old boy, all of LaVerne.

TALES

governor as a result but the nation will be the gainer.

Our feeling has been that more could be done with the vice-presidency if the right man held the job. We think Earl Warren is that man. Certainly, the Western states will now have a lot closer touch with national affairs than they have had in the past.

STASSEN FUTURE

Lot of people seem to be wondering what Harold E. Stassen will do now that he didn't get the presidential nomination. Our guess is that if he doesn't get an appointment to Dewey's cabinet, he will seek a seat in the Senate from Minnesota and continue his program of liberalizing the Republican party.

One thing many people forget. Stassen is only 41 and he can still be a candidate for the next 15 years, at least.

GOOD PICTURES

We got our finished pictures from Sharrett's studio of our daughter and are certainly very pleased with them. He's the photographer, you know, who has been taking pictures of Upland young people for The Daily News-Herald and which have been appearing regularly. If your child hasn't been photographed as yet, let us know and we'll be only too happy to take care of the matter for you.

FOURTH TICKETS

The Fourth is a little over a week away and you can't delay very much longer the purchase of your ticket. Every sale is needed to pay for the fireworks. Tickets are only a dollar each and it certainly is a buck well-spent.

Our fireworks display is one of the big events of the year in the West End. Certainly, it's worth a dollar to each one of us to make sure that it continues.

DEBUNKING

Paul Hottel doesn't know the details (we hope) but he's in for quite a "debunking" next Wednesday night at the annual installation of officers for the Upland Rotary club. Of course, the appearance of Miss Olive Mae Beach will be the highlight of the evening but Paul will probably not enjoy it as much as he should because he'll be worried about what's ahead for him. Keep up your courage, Paul, me boy. We won't hurt your dignity too badly.

the thump-thump of a paid brass band—they don't stir the onlooker. They convince him, maybe, that America is a crazy, wonderful place, if this sort of whoop-de-do is necessary to the nomination of a candidate for the history books. But it's an essentially phony demonstration, and not comparable to the siren shrieks of the woman in red, or even the late-blooming home-front agitation for Wendell Willkie.

The smoke-drenched room, ever since old Boise Penrose engineered Warren Harding's election by telephone bulletins to said room, has been a perverse ideal of the machine politicians. There has existed the fond thought that maybe—just maybe — the boys can gather 'round in a musty hideaway and peddle an unsung king to the commoners, over the heads of the rigged political design. But the smoke-filled room operation has not been really duplicated since 1920—not even in a broad concept of "clear everything with Sidney", or the fancy footwork which chased Henry Wallace out of the last vice-presidency.

As one calloused habitue of these circuses points out, it is impossible to construct a real smoke-filled room in these effeminate days of the cigaret. You can't rightly fog up a room to a truly sinister point unless you are stoking yourself on clear Havana cigars or Pittsburgh stogies.

Personally, I've failed to observe a ringing note of either chicanery or inspiration in this show. The speeches have been largely selfish or mean, to date, with the possible exception of Herbert Hoover's. Mr. Hoover's plea to sublimate politics to the safeguarding of civilization touched a genuinely emotional key.

It was certainly sharply in contrast to the fishwifery of Clare Luce's attack on the Democrats, and the General Morris-dancing that has been performed on the grave of the New Deal. There are at least a few people around who would prefer to see more emphasis on future problems and less nose-thumbing at what happened as far back at 1933.

So far, though, the boys and girls have been looking backward, and certainly not in a vocal fashion to haul the customer out of the seat, with his hat in the air and his belly full of butterflies.

same as last year, $2 for general admission and $1 for students.

(3) Agreed upon percentage distribution of net profits as follows: twenty-five percent of net profits to the eastern team; twenty-five percent to the conference of the western team; ten percent to a selected charity to be chosen later; ten percent to the California Junior College association; and thirty percent to the Pasadena junior chamber of commerce, which this year will take complete financial responsibility for the game.

(4) Approved the method of team selection same as last year. The Southern California Board of Football, headed by Bill Schroeder of the Helms Athletic foundation, will again be asked to make the selection. Eastern teams, the board of management agreed, must submit their eligibility rules to qualify for consideration by the football board.

Present at the meeting as members of the policy-forming board of management were: Donald B. Davis, J. Leroy Hanes, Dick Hubbell and C. Richard Reynolds of the Pasadena junior chamber of commerce; and Dr. Rosco C. Ingalls, Dr. Kenneth M. Kerans, Arthur R. Schaefer, Leo A. Wadsworth, and Dr. J. Paul Mohr, chairman, representing the state athletic committee of the California Junior College association.

Members of the junior chamber of commerce Junior Rose Bowl game executive committee present were: J. Leroy Hanes, general chairman; advisors C. Richard Reynolds, Kenneth C. Stover, Walter R. Hoeflin, and Glen E. Hummer, secretary; together with the following division chairman, Don B. Davis, advance sales; Art Hannifin, publicity; Durward Howes III, eastern schools chairman; Dick Hubbell, western schools chairman; Alfred Ludwig, tickets and William P. Kelley, day of the game chairman.

THAT CERTAIN LOOK

IT CAME INTO MRS. DEWEY'S EYES AS HUSBAND ACCEPTED NOMINATION

By HAL BOYLE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—There is a look that doesn't come every day into a woman's eyes. It came last night into the eyes of one woman.

She is handsome and dark-haired and was wearing a pert black hat—the kind men like—a neat black suit, and a rope of pearls.

She stood on a platform in convention hall beside a man who had just won the Republican presidential nomination. He was also the first Republican since the party's founding in 1856 who had gained a second nomination after losing to a Democrat.

The woman is Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey, who once told an interviewer that the only career she desired was to be "my husband's wife."

And she was living up to her career. As Governor Dewey threw up a confident hand to the cheering crowd, she turned on him the look that every husband who loves his wife sometimes hopes to see in her eyes.

Her eyes said in shiny eloquence:

"Look at my man. Isn't he something? My Tom. They're cheering you again."

And she knew that every woman in the vast crowd of 14,000 people there knew the pride she felt, for all women see these things in other women's eyes. And so do a lot of men.

I don't envy Tom Dewey his title and his worrisome campaign ahead. But I do envy him that look of proud loyalty that Frances Hutt Dewey gave him.

The funny thing about getting that wifely look of "You're-the-only-man-in-the-world-for-me" is that you don't have to be a winner to get it.

You are as likely to get it from the old girl when the world tabs you a loser as when you are the people's crowned savior of this-or-that.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg may have wondered at the last moment whether he shouldn't have made a real grab for the nomination that would have crowned his long career of public service. There were many, many people who wanted him to.

But I think Mrs. Vandenberg was completely honest when she said she hoped her husband wouldn't get it. Her man, after all, had given years trying to build an America and a one-world-for-all he believed in. She knew he would keep on doing that.

To her and to him, fighting for international unity is more important than to head one segment of a world—even our own big segment. I think she thought that the last best gift of life to her was his:

"Honey, you're my presidency—and I've had you for a long time. Now we can have more time together."

Witty Martha Taft must have gone to sleep last night with a feeling of relief.

She must have enjoyed the feminine consolation, alleviating to the hurt of her husband's defeat, that Senator Bob will be with her more often for the next few months or years than if he had won yesterday.

It is a wonderful thing to see your wife's eyes looking at you in love and admiration when you are tossing your hand in victory to the crowd.

It is even more wonderful to see her turn to you in your hour of outside defeat with her eyes of inside love and loyalty.

That is the reward today for a number of Republican candidates. They'll have more fun at home for a long time than the man who beat them.

He's got to be a traveling salesman.

MRS. WARREN'S EYES FILLED WITH TEARS WHEN HUSBAND NOMINATED

By MAX HALL

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia AP—Mrs. Nina Elizabeth Warren, her eyes filled with tears, sat in the balcony today and heard her husband nominated for vice-president of the United States.

How do you feel about it, Mrs. Warren?

"All I can say is—I'll always be happy wherever he is—to be with him, whatever he wants," she said.

Her three blonde daughters, Virginia, 19, Dorothy, 17, and Nina, 14, sat with her, solemn-eyed and awed, as the Republican convention whooped its approval of their father, California Governor Earl Warren, to run for vice-president.

They were perched in the same lofty balcony seats from which they had witnessed the other sessions of the convention.

They stood and bowed their heads when today's opening prayer was offered. By that time the word was already spreading that Warren had been chosen by Thomas E. Dewey as his running mate.

"Bless him," said the preacher, meaning Dewey, "and the man whom we shall choose to stand by his side. Bless him and their families. . . ."

Mrs. Warren and the girls wept silently.

Does Mrs. Warren like Washington?

"I've only been there for short visits. I really don't know much about the East. I've lived in California since I was three years old."

When it was announced that Senator Irving Ives would second Warren's nomination, Mrs. Warren nodded to her daughters and said in a low tone, "That's New York."

It was like saying, "It's true. They've chosen him as the candidate."

SOME SURPRISE

Selection of Governor Warren as Vice-President Hailed in State

ism in the Republican party."

To residents of Sacramento, holding the governor and his family in especial esteem, the news was amazing.

Miss Belle Cooledge, Sacramento's mayor, said "I'm disappointed that he won't be the President. He's a very fine man, and I wanted him for that job."

And Miss Noreen O'Sullivan, housekeeper in the executive mansion in Sacramento, exclaimed "I'm surprised and I'm very glad. But we wish he were to be President instead of vice-president." Then, somewhat to herself, she mused, "What you miss most about Warren, if he leaves, will be his family."

Attorney General Frederick N. Howser said he was very happy. "I think it is a great thing for California," he told reporters. "John Garner put Texas on the map as vice-president, and I think Warren will do the same for California in that capacity."

And up at the state capitol, Mrs. Eleanor Donohue, a legislative clerk, had this to say: "I think maybe they can win, now."

As Warren's clerical staff reported to work this morning, there were expressions of amazement that Warren had accepted the second-place position, joy that he had done so, and vows of loyal support to the Dewey-Warren ticket.

The governor's mansion in Sacramento was quiet. The three Warren girls were in Philadelphia with their parents. Earl Jr., 18, was in Montana on a hunting trip, and Bobby, 13, was in Berkeley having his teeth fixed.

order founded upon justice and righteousness" will this planet find the kind of peace "worth having".

Dewey named his six formal opponents for the nomination amidst bursts of applause. Baldwin's name led all the rest.

Along with the Connecticut Senator, Dewey pointed with pride to Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Stassen, Taft, Vandenberg and Warren.

"There has been honest contention, spirited disagreement, hot argument," he said. "But let no one be misled. You have given moving and dramatic proof of how Americans, who honestly differ, close ranks and move forward for the nation's well being, shoulder to shoulder."

"We have found the means to blow our world, physically apart," he said. "Spiritually we have yet to find the means to put together the world's broken pieces, to bind up its wounds, to make a good society, a community of men of good will that fits our dreams.

Noble Plans

"We have devised noble plans for a new world. Without a new spirit our noblest plans will come to nothing. We pray that, in the days ahead, a full measure of that spirit may be ours."

Of the choice of a running mate still ahead, Dewey said:

"I come to you unfettered by a single obligation or promise to any living person, free to join with you in selecting to serve our nation the finest men and women in the nation, free to unite our party and our country in meeting the grave challenge of our time."

The crowd yelled. But it really screamed later when Dewey made two appearances at his downtown hotel.

Before citizens massed from curb to curb for a solid block, Dewey stepped out on a balcony to declare that the Republican party—and he in particular—will "bring the finest talent in the country to do the job of government that needs to be done."

Californian Promises Every Bit of Loyalty

the very best that I have, and I will give to our great leader, Thomas E. Dewey, every bit of loyalty in my makeup.

"I will work with him to make this government responsive to the people at all times. I will work with him to make it a humane government, an efficient government and—above all—a government of integrity from top to bottom."

Warren told Martin, who is speaker of the house, that when the next congress comes along, he won't have to fight to make the facts available to the people.

"And I say to you that under the circumstances," Warren continued, "the 80th congress has made remarkable progress. No congress can make any program unless it has the confidence of the administrative departments.

"We, in our turn, will give congress every bit of helpfulness the executive department can give it."

Warren spoke extemporaneously. He concluded with these words:

"And I want to tell you in all sincerity that I appreciate the great honor you have bestowed. On behalf of my dear wife, who is with me today and who has sustained me in all these difficult years in public life, and on behalf of my daughters, I want to thank you."

The conferences which led to the 58-year-old Californian's selection began last night, ran through the dawn hours, and were completed in a three-hour session after Dewey took a cat-nap.

One of those who backed a losing contender for the No. 2 GOP spot told something of what went on behind the closed doors of Dewey's hotel suite.

"It was like arguing a case before the supreme court," he said.

Like Judge

Dewey sat there like a supreme court judge, he explained, to hear the "case" for every vice-presidential hopeful. He was flanked by a "board" including Senator Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Senator Raymond Baldwin of Connecticut, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey, Herbert Brownell, Jr., a Dewey manager; G. Mason Owlett, Pennsylvania Republican national committeeman, and J. Russell Sprague, New York national committeeman.

Finally these men reached a decision. Sprague went out and passed the word to waiting newsmen.

Dewey and his "board" had tapped Warren. Sprague said it was "practically unanimous".

Stassen's backers in the GOP convention took it hardest. The hard-campaigning Minnesotan has a do-or-die following among the younger Republicans. They don't take defeat easily.

Some wanted to put his name before the convention anyhow. But Stassen wouldn't hear of that and, when the convention ratified the Dewey-and-board decision, said:

"I will give my support to Governor Warren just as I announced last night I would support Governor Dewey and other Republican candidates."

African elephants, not now tamed, were tamed and used in warfare by the Carthaginians and Romans.
